

DRESS CODE BIMUN XVII

This document contains the dress code that every participant should obey during the Model of the United Nations, BIMUN XVII. It should be clarified that The Dress Code seeks to guide both delegates, sponsors, observers and others present, in their personal appearance by mentioning appropriate and inappropriate clothing in this educational environment, as well as offering practical suggestions to project a diplomatic image that generates confidence, professionalism and maturity.

GENERAL RULES
→ The clothing must be ironed and clean.
→ Make sure that the clothing combination is suitable for the event.
→ Keep your hairstyle professional. Avoid using garish accessories.
→ We recommend the use of neutral, dark colors, pastel and whites since these colors give you more seriousness. Please avoid using printed clothing or strong colors such as red, orange, yellow, etc. If you choose to use strong colors, please be discreet.
→ It is not permitted to use caps, bermudas, t-shirts, sleeveless blouses, short pants, or similar attire such as leggings, jeans or other informal pants, or any types of sports clothing. Shoes should be professional, not tennis or flip-flops.
→ It is prohibited to remove your coat during the sessions. Being this during debate or lobby time.
